Cocktails

Classics

- Long Island Iced Tea - Five different spirits collide in this cocktail that surprisingly tastes like iced tea. Featuring vodka, tequila, light rum, triple sec, gin and a splash of cola, this classic certainly packs a punch! £7.95
- Mojito - A favourite for many, this mixture of rum, lime and mint over crushed ice is the perfect refreshing tippie. £6.95
- Go fruity with the choice of a strawberry or raspberry alternative* £7.95
- Cosmopolitan - A favourite with the ladies. This sharp and elegant pink cocktail mixes citrus vodka, Cointreau, cranberry and lime juice. £7.95
- Margarita - Served straight up or frozen, the Margarita is one of the most popular cocktails of all time for a reason! A delicious mix of tequila, Cointreau and fresh lime. £7.50
- Negroni - Best enjoyed before dinner as an aperitif, this Italian cocktail is a simple blend of aromatic oranges and crisp gin. £7.50
- Alabama Slamma - This fruity cocktail mixes the subtle cherry notes of Disaronno with the laid back vibes of southern comfort, topped up with orange juice and a dash of grenadine. £6.95
- Strawberry, Melon and Lime Daiquiri - This decadent blend of strawberries, white rum and Midori melon liqueur is perfect for lazy afternoon sipping, and perfectly refreshing all year round. £6.50
- Disaronno Amaretto Sours - A unique refreshing drink, in which distinctive notes of Disaronno blend with the scent of freshly squeezed lemons. £5.95
- Dark & Stormy - Made with Black Gosling rum and Fentimen's ginger beer, the name was coined by a sailor who, while enjoying the cocktail, commented that it was the "colour of a cloud only a fool or a dead man would sail under." £7.95

*An alcohol free version can be made for these cocktails for £4.50

Martinis

Passionfruit Martini* - Sweet vanilla vodka flavours are balanced by the sharpness of fresh passionfruit, complemented by a shot of Prosecco on the side. £8.95
